Welcome to the March 2007 edition of "Heart Beats," a short monthly e-mail to keep you up to date on the exciting things happening through Heart Sounds International.

EXTENSIVE MINISTRY over the next SIX WEEKS

Siberia - early March

The first team moving out leaves shortly for Siberia to do ministry among the Sakha people, one of the minority tribes of the vast Siberian region. They will attend the first Christian Sakha music and arts festival, facilitate song writing and document the trip on video and audio.

PRAY that the Sakha believers will be encouraged and strong, despite opposition from the community.

Thailand - mid March

Another team will leave soon to attend a global gathering of Christian workers ministering among Muslims. The team will be part of the worship band for the conference, and will network with those doing church planting and discipleship among Muslims. A special seminar will be led by the HSI team to address ways that music and the arts, including HSI, can build bridges to reach Muslims.

PRAY for the enrichment of those attending and the HSI seminar to be useful and effective.

China - late March

Final details are coming together to facilitate an historic songwriting and recording event among China's largest minority group. This event is done in partnership with other mission agencies in the area. These will be some of the first indigenous Christian songs that will be widely distributed among this minority in several dialects.

PRAY for the HSI team preparing teaching materials, testing new equipment and finalizing details.

MoveOn

Middle East - June

Spaces are filling for this "ethno-worship" journey to the Middle East for June 2007. This project involves researching a culture's music, participating in church services, and facilitating a song writing workshop and recording. Want to be part of this team?
