Come Along With Us!

Last week the leadership team of Heart Sounds International met together for our annual retreat. We had rich fellowship, great food, moving times of singing, praying, discussing, planning, reviewing and all the other activities that go into our retreats.

We've faced present realities with various financial pressures and despite the need to tighten our proverbial belts, we're gearing up for one of our busiest years yet of HSI projects around the world. These trips include HSI personnel leading various kinds of teams for music and ethnic worship projects. Some trips involve recording, some are cross-cultural ministry exposure trips, and some involve training. We're looking for people to come with us who can help with audio recording, basic video recording, or photography. We also have room for those who want to serve as assistants and helpers on the teams.

10 Projects in 2009: We have three projects in Mongolia, two in India, two in Siberia, two in the Philippines, and a sensitive recording project in one of the most restricted regions of the Middle East. While some of the trips are full, there are still openings on some of these projects.

Interested? Here's what to do:

1. Send us an email to info@heart-sounds.org indicating your interest. Include your phone info in your email.
2. One of our HSI leaders will contact you by phone and/or email and discuss the possibilities that fit your schedule, the costs involved, travel requirements, etc.
3. We will do our best to find a place for you on the team that (as much as possible) fits your training, interests and gifting.
4. We will begin the orientation process for you to connect to the culture, the music, the church and other aspects of the region of the world where the HSI team will be headed.
