Heart Sounds Projects Moving Forward

This last month has been a busy time for Heart Sounds International at our Atlanta and Kansas City offices!

Recordings

HSI recording engineers have completed mixing and mastering projects from the Arabian Peninsula and the Gobi Desert of Mongolia. You can go to <http://www.youtube.com/user/HSIOM> to see a music video from "Mongolia: Gobi Desert" made by HSI engineers.

YouTube

HSI co-founder Ken Davidson has released a sweeping video about global worship on YouTube. You can view it by going to YouTube and searching for "Sounds of Global Worship: A Virtual Tour" or click: http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=hFr\_uYqLpB4.

Publishing

HSI leaders Frank Fortunato and Robin Harris have teamed up for various writing projects. They have released articles in a recent Worship Leader Magazine issue devoted to global worship, a chapter for a new book on the use of orality in missions, as well as contributing articles for an upcoming release of a journal featuring the arts in mission. This journal, published by the World Evangelical Alliance, will be released to Christian leaders from 200 nations attending the Lausanne Congress on World Evangelization to be held in Cape Town, September, 2010. Get a copy of the Worship Leader articles by email: info@heartsoundsinternational.org.

Books

The second edition of All the World is Singing has been released! The book is a compilation of stories on the power of heart music around the world. Three authors, Frank Fortunato, Paul Neeley and Carol Brinneman teamed up to compile this reader on ethnic and global music and arts. The volume includes a CD ROM with pictures, sound and video clips, and has been featured in colleges and seminaries. Order copies at <http://heart-sounds.org/media/puatwis.html>.

We are so grateful for another month worshipping and serving the King of Kings. Thank you for your prayers and for following our progress!

Warmly,
Frank Fortunato
HSI Coordinator
